playing this game in winter right after taking a shower at 4 AM while wearing a cut shirt and a short pants is insane! only a look at all this ice can make me freeze, but I did all that to feel the game, and be with it in my mind and body! and no, I didn't get sick. my immunity must be unbreakable xD I really liked this game, playing it with PC is much better than the phone but again, I had a little trouble with the controls.. playing this game in winter right after taking a shower at 4 AM while wearing a cut shirt and a short pants is insane! only a look at all this ice can make me freeze, but I did all that to feel the game, and be with it in my mind and body! and no, I didn't get sick. my immunity must be unbreakable xD I really liked this game, playing it with PC is much better than the phone but again, I had a little trouble with the controls.
